David Henry Drenth, 65, of East Jordan, died Friday, May 28, 2010, in Kalkaska.

Visitation took place 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. Monday, May 31, at the Penzien Funeral Home in East Jordan. The funeral service will be 1 p.m. today, Tuesday, June 1, at the East Jordan United Methodist Church. The Rev. Rap Posnik will officiate and burial will be in Sunset Hill Cemetery in East Jordan.

Dave was born Sept. 25, 1944, in Charlevoix, the son of Henry and Jennette (TerAvest) Drenth. He graduated in 1963 from East Jordan High School.

Dave was a member of the East Jordan United Methodist Church and the Jordan Valley Chapter of Ducks Unlimited.

He enjoyed hunting and garage sale-ing, spending time with his grandchildren and driving his truck. He was self employed in his plumbing and handyman business.

On April 11, 1969, he married Donna Carey in East Jordan, and she survives him. He is also survived by his daughters, Amy and her husband, Ryan Hasapis, of Glendale Heights, Ill., Heidi and her fiancé, Chris Rodgers, of East Jordan; grandchildren, Caleb, Jacob, Max, Hannah Grace, and Alex; mother, Jennette Drenth, of Traverse City; brother, Tom (Carol) Drenth of Lowell; sister, Jan (John) Noye, of Traverse City.

Memorial contributions may be made to the East Jordan United Methodist Church or to the Drenth Foundation.
