
OBITUARIES

Fred S. 'Pete' Sweet, 78

Fred S. "Pete" Sweet, 78, of East Jordan, died Jan. 4, 1994, at Northern Michigan Hospital in Petoskey.

Funeral service will be held 2 p.m. Friday, Jan. 7, at the Paullin Funeral Home, East Jordan. The Rev. Peter A. Elliott from the East Jordan Missionary Church will officiate. Burial will take place in Sunset Hill Cemetery, East Jordan.

Mr. Sweet was born Jan. 3, 1916, in Jordan Township, the son of Claude and Velma (White) Sweet. He has been a life-long resident of East Jordan.

On June 15, 1940, he married Alice I. Hawley in East Jordan and she survives.

Mr. Sweet was involved in training and showing horses all of his life.

Survivors include his wife, Alice I. Sweet, of East Jordan; two sons and their wives, Sanford H. and Paula Sweet of East Jordan, and Roger and Jackie Sweet of Deputy, Ind.; his grandchildren,

Brent Sweet of Grand Ledge, Robin Peters, Shandra Sweet and Sanford Lee Sweet, all of East Jordan, Deborah McClain of Dexter, and Deanna Francisco of Green Bay, Wis.; great-grandchildren, Kyle Peters, Shaina Peters and Andrew Magee; two brothers, Melvin Sweet and his wife, Peggy, of Grand Rapids, and Marlin Sweet and his wife, Glenda, of East Jordan; one sister-in-law, Ethel Sweet, of East Jordan; and several nieces and nephews. Mr. Sweet was preceded in death by his daughter, Charlene P. Sweet, on March 21, 1993, and by his brother, Frank C. Sweet, on Oct. 21, 1993.

The family suggests memorial contributions be made to the American Heart Association of Michigan. Envelopes for memorial contributions are available at the Paullin Funeral Home in East Jordan where visitation will be held 1-9 p.m. today, Jan. 6, and from 11 a.m. until the time of service Friday.