

Louis Kamradt, 63

Louis Kamradt, 63, of Lansing, died Oct. 9, 1988, at Ingham Medical Center, Lansing.

Funeral will be 11 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 13, at the Paullin Funeral Home, East Jordan. The Rev. Kenneth Harger of the Shiloh Community Church will officiate. Interment will be in Sunset Hill Cemetery, East Jordan.

Mr. Kamradt was born May 1, 1925, in East Jordan, the son of Louis F. and Reva (Porter) Kamradt. He served in the U.S. Marines during World War II and had worked as a machinist for the Auto Air Composites, Inc. in Lansing.

Survivors include: Betty Kamradt of Lansing; three sons, John Kamradt of Lansing, Michael Thilgen of California and Gary Thilgen of Saranac; two daughters, Mrs. Richard (Karen) Houghton of Lakeview and Julie Ruehs of Kalamazoo; 11 grandchildren; one brother and three sisters, Max Kamradt, Joyce Raymond, Mrs. Eldon (Ruth) Neumann and Mrs. Clifford (Dorothy) Mayhew, all of East Jordan; many nieces and nephews.

Friends may call at the Paullin Funeral Home after 6 p.m. Wednesday.