

Veronica J. Williams, 70

Veronica J. Williams, 70, of Central Lake and a former East Jordan resident, died July 19, 1992, at Grand Traverse Community Hospital in Traverse City.

Funeral will be 1 p.m. Tuesday, July 21, at the Lighthouse Pentecostal Tabernacle in Central Lake with the Rev. Bryan W. Shook officiating. Interment will be in Sunset Hill Cemetery, East Jordan.

Mrs. Williams was born Nov. 4, 1921, in Rose City, the daughter of Mance F. and Sarah A. (Cook) Cone. She lived in Harbor Springs until 1943 and then moved to East Jordan. Several years ago, she moved to Central Lake to make her home with her daughter.

She retired from Gulf & Western in East Jordan. Mrs. Williams enjoyed crocheting, sewing and art tech painting on shirts. She graduated from high school by completing a correspondence course.

She was a member of the Lighthouse Pentecostal Tabernacle in Central Lake.

On June 6, 1947, in East Jordan, she married Charly Williams and he preceded her in death in 1975. Also preceding her in death were three brothers, Oliver B. Cone in 1962, Mance O. Cone in 1980, and John E. Boughner in 1990.

She is survived by her adopted mother, Minnie Gores of Farmington; one daughter, Mrs. Richard (Patricia) Fyan of Central Lake; two sons, Charles R. and his wife Ruth Ann Gardner and William I and his wife Diana Lynn Gardner, all of East Jordan; six grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Charles Cone of Harbor Springs and J.D. Cone of Grand Rapids.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Lighthouse Pentecostal Tabernacle in Central Lake. Envelopes for memorial contributions are available at the Paullin Funeral Home in East Jordan where friends may call until 9 p.m. today, July 20, and 10-11 a.m. Tuesday, July 21.
