

Mary Helen Donaldson, 81 ⁴⁻¹²⁻⁹³ _{PNR}

Mary Helen Donaldson, 81, of Harbor Springs, died April 9, 1993, at the Emmet County Medical Care Facility.

Funeral was held Saturday at the Schiller Funeral Chapel of Harbor Springs. The Rev. Frank Kordek, OFM, of Holy Childhood Catholic Church, officiated. Interment will be in Sunset Hill Cemetery, East Jordan.

She was born May 23, 1911, in Port Austin, Mich.

She was a member of the Women's Army Corps and served as sergeant from 1943-45.

She married Robert Bruce Donaldson on Aug. 27, 1954, and the couple had owned several laundromats in the Petoskey and Indian River areas. They also owned a service station in Charlevoix for several years.

Mr. Donaldson preceded her in death.

Mrs. Donaldson's hobby was sewing.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Anger of Marysville, and Mrs. Isabelle Good of Toledo, Ohio; two brothers, Fred Hebert of Ypsilanti, and George Hebert of Genoa, Ohio; and many nieces and nephews.

The family suggests memorial contributions be made to the Parkinson's Disease Foundation or to the American Heart Association.
