

Joseph K. Compo, 70

Joseph K. Compo, 70, of East Jordan, died April 29, 1984, at Grandvue Medical Care Facility, East Jordan.

Services were 11:30 a.m. today at St. Josephs Church, East Jordan. Rev. R. Dale Magoon officiated and burial was in Sunset Hill Cemetery, East Jordan.

Mr. Compo was born Sept. 8, 1913, near Hart, the son of Otto and Margaret Compo.

He moved to East Jordan with his parents as a young boy and had resided there ever since.

In September 1954, he married the former Irene Walker in East Jordan.

Mr. Compo was employed at East Jordan Foundry for over 30 years. He was a member of St. Josephs Church.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Joseph of Escanaba, Peter of Henville and Gary of Lansing; two daughters, Margaret Compo of Lansing and Amelia VanBurger of Grand Ledge; 16 grandsons, 8 granddaughters; one brother, Frank of Grand Rapids.

Funeral arrangements were handled by Winchester Funeral Home, Charlevoix, where a rosary was recited Tuesday evening.