

Marshall Griffin Jr., 85

P.W.R.
8-16-55

Funeral services for Marshall J. Griffin Jr., 85, of East Jordan were held at the United Methodist Church in East Jordan, Monday afternoon, Aug. 19. The Rev. Brian W. Secor officiated. Interment was in Sunset Hill cemetery.

Mr. Griffin died Saturday, Aug. 17, at the Petoskey Geriatric Center.

Born in Essex, Antrim County, June 1, 1900, Mr. Griffin moved to Beaver Island with his family in 1902, and in 1916 to East Jordan. In 1922, he was married to the former Charlotte Gothro at East Jordan where they made their home. She preceded him in death in 1967. He was married to the former Mauvie Willard at Saginaw in 1967.

In his early years, he was a grader in a lumber mill. From 1928 until 1958 he was employed at the East Jordan Iron Works. He was a member of the East Jordan United Methodist Church, and for many years had been a member of the East Jordan Fire Department.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Herbert of East Jordan; two daughters, Mrs. Donald (Elnora) Turnipseed of Detroit and Mrs. Glenn (Doris) Ingalls of Grand Rapids; two step-daughters, Mrs. Rhea Harshman of Saginaw and Mrs. Ruth Lisowski of Rochester; nine grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; a brother, Guy Griffin of Detroit and two sisters, Mrs. Donald (Rose) Livingston and Mrs. Clusten (Ann) Burt, both of Clio.

The Hastings Funeral Home of Ellsworth was in charge of arrangements.